EXPLANATORY.

THE compiler of this third edition of the Mail Book of the living alumni of Hamilton College, asks that errors and omissions in names, titles, occupation, or P. O. addresses may be promptly corrected, to the end that a future edition may be nearer to entire accuracy. If the Mail-Book were free from errors at the date of its publication, the frequent changes among the younger Alumni would soon call for a revised edition. In a few cases, the location of a graduate has been given by anticipation, where it will be at the beginning of the next academic year.

From the list of graduates of the Maynard-Knox Law School all names have been omitted that are to be found among the Bachelors of Arts.

It will be seen that the names of all known to be Stelligerents have been omitted, and that a few names are given without a place of residence. Most of these are probably Stelligerents, but no report of their death has reached the Necrologist. He will be grateful for information about all such names.

As this Mail-Book is not intended to be historical, the multiplication of honorary titles has been avoided.

A few abbreviations have been used : b. stands for banker; e. for editor; l. for lawyer; mf. for manufacturer; m. for merchant; t. for teacher.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

E. N.

MAIL-BOOK

OF THE

LIVING GRADUATES

OF

HAMILTON COLLEGE,

CLINTON, N. Y.,

FOR THE YEAR 1894.

---

COMPILED BY

• EDWARD NORTH,
Professor of Greek, and Necrologist.

---

CLINTON, N. Y.:

COURIER PRESS, J. B. & H. B. SYKES, PRINTERS.

1894.

EXPLANATORY.

The compiler of this second edition of the Mail Book of the living alumni of Hamilton College asks that errors and omissions in names, titles, occupations, or P. O. addresses will be promptly corrected, to the end that a future edition may be nearer to entire accuracy. If the Mail-Book were free from errors at the date of its publication, the frequent changes among the younger alumni would soon call for a revised edition.

From the list of graduates of the Maynard-Knox Law School all names have been omitted that are to be found among the Bachelors of Arts.

It will be seen that the names of all known to be Stelligerents have been omitted, and that a few names are given without a place of residence. Most of these are probably Stelligerents, but no report of their death has reached the Necrologist. He will be grateful for information about all such names.

As this Mail-Book is not intended to be historical, the multiplication of honorary titles has been avoided.

A few abbreviations have been used: b. stands for banker; e. for editor; l. for lawyer; mf. for manufacturer; m. for merchant; t. for teacher.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

EXPLANATORY.

THE compiler of this fourth edition of the Mail Book of the living Graduates of Hamilton College, asks that errors and omissions in names, titles, occupation, or P. O. addresses, may be promptly corrected, to the end that a future edition may be nearer to entire accuracy. If the Mail-Book were free from errors at the date of its publication, the frequent changes among the younger Alumni would soon call for a revised edition. In a few cases, the location of a graduate has been given by anticipation, where it will be at the beginning of the next academic year.

From the list of graduates of the Maynard-Knox Law School all names have been omitted that are to be found among the Bachelors of Arts.

It will be seen that the names of all known to be Stelligerents have been omitted, and that a few names are given without a place of residence. Most of these are probably Stelligerents, but no report of their death has reached the Necrologist. He will be grateful for information about all such names. It is also requested that each recent decease of a graduate be promptly reported to the Necrologist, either by the Class Secretary or by some friend.

As this Mail-Book is not intended to be historical, the multiplication of honorary titles has been avoided.

A few abbreviations have been used: b. stands for banker; e. for editor; l. for lawyer; mf. for manufacturer; m. for merchant; t. for teacher.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

EXPLANATORY.

THE compiler of this fifth edition of the Mail Book of the living Graduates of Hamilton College, asks that errors and omissions in names, titles, occupation, or P. O. addresses, may be promptly corrected, to the end that a future edition may be nearer to entire accuracy. If the Mail-Book were free from errors at the date of its publication, the frequent changes among the younger Alumni would soon call for a revised edition. In a few cases, the location of a graduate has been given by anticipation, where it will be at the beginning of the next academic year.

From the list of graduates of the Maynard-Knox Law School all names have been omitted that are to be found among the Bachelors of Arts.

It will be seen that the names of all known to be Stelligerents have been omitted, and that a few names are given without a place of residence. Most of these are probably Stelligerents, but no report of their death has reached the Necrologist. He will be grateful for information about all such names. It is also requested that each recent decease of a graduate be promptly reported to the Necrologist, either by the Class Secretary or by some friend.

As this Mail-Book is not intended to be historical, the multiplication of honorary titles has been avoided.

A few abbreviations have been used : b. stands for banker ; e. for editor ; l. for lawyer ; mf. for manufacturer ; m. for merchant ; t. for teacher.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
